

THE CHARITON COURIER.

G. P. VANDIVER, Ed. and Prop.

KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

Entered at the post-office at Keytesville, Mo. as second-class mail matter.

Friday, Nov. 1, 1895.

Brill, the grocer, will not be undersold.

Miss Maggie Hyde, daughter of Rev. G. W. Hyde, of Lexington, Mo., is the guest of Keytesville relatives.

Now is the time to be on time. Get a watch at W. C. Gaston's. His stock is complete.

Baleh & Sons, proprietors of flour and grain exchange, opposite Tippet's blacksmith shop, Keytesville, Mo.

C. E. Stewart, the gentlemanly foreman of the Brunswick, was at the capital Tuesday on probate business.

Go to Brill for groceries, glassware, queensware, tinware, candies, cigars and tobacco.

Mrs. Dr. S. W. Downing returned last Sunday afternoon from an extended visit to her parents, at Centralia, Mo.

Remember when you want groceries that Brill's stock is all new and fresh, and that he will make you bottom prices.

Brunswick's K. O. T. Ms. gave an oyster supper on Wednesday night which is reported to have been an enjoyable affair.

If you want shoes that will give the best of satisfaction, buy the celebrated Peters Shoe Co.'s brands sold by M. Henry, Triplett.

Clark Ward and family have moved into and are now keeping house in the Hyde property, lately vacated by Marshal Embree and Jar. Craig and families.

Keytesville's latest enterprise is Baleh & Sons' flour and grain exchange which was opened up on Cherry street, opposite Tippet's blacksmith shop, on Oct. 1st.

Of P. Nordmeyer, John Ridderman, John Peters and Fred Lioneman, all of near Glasgow, were "courting" at Keytesville last Tuesday. The three first-named gentlemen made the COURIER a pleasant call.

Before you go to see anyone else come and see what you can do at Keytesville's new flour and grain exchange.

BALCH & SONS, Proprietors.

Mrs. Wm. E. Hill and daughter, Miss Lizzie, returned last Sunday afternoon from Chicago, where they had been making elaborate purchases with which they will furnish their new and elegant home.

M. Henry, "the hustler" of Triplett, is making very low prices on his large line of dry goods and groceries. He sells for cash and can, therefore, give his customers the best of bargains.

At the sixty-first annual session of the Missouri Baptist association recently held at St. Joseph, Mr. Jas. L. Applegate, of St. Louis, a brother of Mr. Lewis Applegate, of this city, was elected auditor for the ensuing year.

When you want the pure article, try Kellogg's pure, hand-made sour-mash whiskey.

The tallest stalk of corn we have ever seen or heard of was presented to this office last Tuesday afternoon by Robert Brown, a prosperous farmer of three miles west of town. It measures 17 feet in length. If any of our farmer friends have a corn stalk that surpasses this in length we invite them to "trot it out."

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Mrs. Fannie Crilly, nee Lay, after a visit of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. F. M. Veatch, and other relatives and friends, started for her home, in Raton, New Mexico, last Monday morning. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Ward's little daughter, Ethel, who will probably be absent during the winter.

Howard Owen made a business trip to Kansas City Tuesday.

You can't help but notice the change in Miller & Lewis' "ad." this week.

Salisbury has a new restaurant, E. B. Daikin, of DeWitt, being the proprietor.

Miss Mary Wheeler spent Sunday in Moberly, the guest of her friend, Miss Anna Leuzinger.

The Mohawk Medicine company is holding down the boards at Sumner's opera-house this week.

Rev. C. K. Philling will preach at the M. E. Church, South, in this city next Sunday, morning and night.

Rev. C. F. D. Arnold preached two interesting sermons at the Baptist church here last Sunday, morning and night.

Mrs. Frances Wier, of Armourdale, Kansas, sends us a dollar to be applied on her subscription to the COURIER.

Rev. J. J. Squire will fill his regular appointment at the Presbyterian church in this city next Sunday, morning and evening.

D. W. Strickler, of Chranville, called at the COURIER wig-wam last Tuesday and renewed his subscription to the Great Favorite Weekly.

Several couples of Keytesville's young people attended a social gathering at the residence of Chas. Allega, of near Shannondale, last Tuesday night.

While in Salisbury the other day, John Young, of Shannondale, was driving along the street when his horse became frightened and ran away, completely wrecking his buggy.

While over in the east end of town the other day we heard the Salisbury Press-Spectator man smacking his lips over a large, juicy ham presented him by E. Finnell, the popular representative of the Ottumwa Packing company.

Mrs. Sam Balch, of Brunswick, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Carson, and son, Ernest, several days since our last issue.

John Hayes, of Salisbury, has sold his interest in the store of Clark Bros. & Co., of that city, to Wm. Bodine, of Hannibal. The new firm will be Clark & Bodine.

Rev. B. V. Price, of Virginia, an evangelist of rare ability, has been engaged to assist Rev. C. K. Shilling in a protracted meeting to be begun at this place on Jan. 25th, 1896.

Our good friend, E. Finnell, the jolly knight of the grip, who recently sprained his ankle, is now laid up for repairs at the residence of Mr. Taylor in Salisbury. We hope soon to hear of his recovery.

The job work done at this office is always first-class. We never turn out botched work. In the vernacular of the street urchin, "when we can't satisfy the most fastidious on job printing, it 'aint us."

THE LEADING CLOTHIERS,
KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

S. P. Logan and J. R. Jackson, two prominent Republicans of near Mendon, were at the capital Wednesday last and while here made the COURIER a pleasant call. Mr. Jackson left the collateral for a year's subscription to the Great Favorite Weekly and the Globe-Democrat.

Judge W. W. Rucker, ex-Sheriff O. B. Anderson and W. A. Taylor, three of Keytesville's most prominent citizens, were in town a few hours Saturday. These gentlemen have many land interests in the county, and their trip here was in connection with these investments.—Brunswick.

Rucker & Hunt, one of Keytesville's enterprising furniture firms, plant an "ad" in this issue of the COURIER, in which some interesting figures are presented for the consideration of the purchasing public. They have inaugurated a new departure in the undertaking line, whereby all parties needing a hearse can be accommodated free of charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Matthews, of Corinth, Kentucky, after an extended visit to relatives in McPherson, Kansas, arrived in Keytesville last Friday and remained over Sunday with the family of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Owen. After a few days' visit to the family of Lee McNew, of near Brunswick, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews will visit friends in Iowa and Indiana, after which they will return to the "blue-grass region."

Mr. John Blue died recently at his home in Nevada, Mo., of heart failure, aged 46 years. Mr. Blue was a native of Brunswick, and was well and favorably known in this county by the early settlers. Deceased's father, John H. Blue, was the founder of the Brunswick, which he conducted for six years, the first issue being made in 1847.

Mrs. Mary Wilson, who has been confined to her bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. C. Phillips, since last Saturday, of pneumonia, is reported to be very low as we go to press.

"The course of true love never runs smooth" is a trite old saying, which perhaps originated from the mistaking of some other passion for "true love." At any rate the wooing season and short wedded life, of Claude Wilkerson and bonny bride, nee Bertha Friesz, who eloped from their parental roofs a few weeks ago and were married in Fayette has resulted in a separation. The parties are young. The bride-groom had not attained his majority, and the bride was scarcely eighteen when they were married. The bride is now ill of typhoid fever at the home of her parents, west of town, and since her illness she told her young benedict that she was tired of married life and that he could go back to his parents, and he has, we understand, taken her at her word. In this instance of an unhappy termination of wedded life, we are reminded of the old adage: "Marry in haste and repent at leisure."

Miss Mildred Hyde leaves to-day (Friday) for a few days' visit to Huntville friends.

JAS. F. TAYLOR.

Keytesville's building boom continues with unabated zeal, and judging from present indications it will be protracted well into the winter months. All of our carpenters, painters and plasterers are busy and have been ever since early last spring, and as a result of their labors, when all the buildings now in course of erection are completed, there will be 12 or 15 handsome new dwellings added to the growing town of Keytesville. If you wish to live among people who are aware of the fact that "the earth do move," come to Keytesville.

Quarterly meeting will be held at Asbury Chapel on Nov. 9th and 10th. Rev. J. R. A. Vaughan, presiding elder for this district, will be present, and on Friday night, Nov. 8th, will preach the initiatory sermon to a protracted meeting to be begun at Asbury at that time, which will continue for two weeks. Rev. Holland, of Fayette circuit, will take charge of the meeting on Monday night, Nov. 11th, and conduct it to its close.

Beasley & Jennings, Brunswick tobaccoists, raised 300 bushels of beets of the Mangold-Wurtzel variety from three-eighths of an acre of ground, which is a pretty good yield for that kind of a beet. We have known communities, however, where a man could go out most any time and gather in about 800 bushels of "beets" of the "dead" variety, from half that much ground.

Some cowardly hoodlum extracted a large, juicy cud of tobacco against a window pane of the Hale City Times office the other night, and in speaking of the contemptuous act, Bro. Brown says: "We would place a spittoon in front of our office for such come-by-chances—but for fear of their drinking the contents and stealing the spittoon."

A splendid quality of brick are constantly kept for sale at Beasley's brick-yard, Brunswick, Mo.

Capt. R. M. Scott has been confined to his bed for a few days past with a slight illness.

Recorder B. H. Smith, wife and babies spent Sunday in Salisbury, guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Keath.

Mrs. C. B. Crawley, who has been quite ill of inflammatory rheumatism, we are glad to chronicle is now considerably better.

BORN:—To the wife of C. A. Chapman, on Tuesday morning, Oct. 29th, a fine 8-pound boy. Mother and babe doing well.

Mrs. P. Auxberger, of Brunswick, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Hugo Bartz, the latter part of last and the first of this week.

J. M. Collins, wife and baby, of Mendon, drove down to Keytesville last Saturday and spent the day with Mrs. Collins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vandiver.

"Aunt Dollie" Myers, an aged colored woman, died at the home of her daughter-in-law, "Dicy" Myers, in Keytesville last Friday night, of dropsy. She was buried in Keytesville colored cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Lee J. Davis, one of Brunswick's best young men, was last week admitted as a practitioner at the bar of justice and is now a full-fledged lawyer. "Lee" is a young man of intelligence and will no doubt be heard from in the legal arena.

Scott J. Miller, a prominent attorney of Chillicothe, was an attendant at circuit court here this week. It is said that Mr. Miller will be a candidate for congress at the next election, but as to the truth of this statement we are not advised.
